Entrepreneurship for Employment is an NGO that works in Spain and in the UE, integrated by professionals and selfworker from all activity sector developed in the rural areas. Long life learning training is one of our strategical priorities.

Emprendedores para el Empleo

The General Workers' Union (GWU) was officially founded on 5 October 1943. It is the largest trade union in Malta and its foundation date is celebrated until today as Union Day. The GWU's strength lies in its diverse membership coming from all the sectors of the Maltese economy.

It organises in its folds more than 54 per cent of the organised labour force levelling 35 per cent of the gainfully occupied. This makes the GWU the powerful force it is today in the domestic industrial relations arena.

Confederazione Italiana Agricoltori "agricoltura è vita" of Rome Agricoltura è Vita is an operational entity established by Cia with a view to conducting training and consulting activities as well as disseminating innovative concepts among farms and local agricultural organizations.

Asociatia Femeilor din Romania (Women's Association of Romania) is the first democratic organisation for women and was founded in the days of the Romanian Revolution in December 1989, as a result of the need to organize, represent and to protect the rights of women in Romania. AFR is a leader within the women's movement and it is fighting for a real status for the women in our country.

A.F.R. is a non-governmental and non-profit organisation with the objective to increase the level of awareness among women in Romania, which can lead to their determination in achieving and developing their ability to take responsibility over positive changes in their own life and the society.

In its 20 years of existence, AFR has developed national and international programs and projects; held training courses and activities; organized advocacy seminars and campaigns in the areas of: civic education, gender equality, health, promotion of tolerance and non-violation, elimination of poverty and discrimination and adult education and development of international partnerships, developed programs to valorize the women entrepreneurial spirit in rural and urban areas.

AFR has 9557 members actives and beneficiaries in Bucharest and 20 branch organizations in different counties of the country. The pragmatic approach gives the association a large audience within women. The activities of AFR are based on voluntary work.

Devoted to the slogan "HELP ME TO HELP YOU", AFR, leader of the women's movement, is promoting an efficiencies partnership in enrolling programs, projects and common activities.

Our institution is a municipality of a city of the Madeira island, his capital, is composed for 10 clienteles with more than 110,000 of habitants.

The Funchal besides concentrating the headquarters of the social and administrative equipment concentrates the economics activities, over all of the tourism, public administration, social services, generating a great one it offers of job witch is always motivated since migratory and immigrate movements of all the island.

It is in this city concentrates 60% of the population, nominated in the clienteles of Saint António and São Martinho.

They are in these clienteles where they are great accumulations of social quarters. These quarters, are constituted with a very heterogeneous population, aged, or either 69.0% have between the 15 and 64 years; 56,5% make use only of basic education; 41,7% of the population in the reform situation, pensioner and or in the reserve; 18.1% domestic women.

In this social quarters the problems of social exclusion emerge and it is being a bet of this institution.
